

Megan Schneider
Senior Director, Government Affairs
National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO)

Megan Schneider joined the staff of NACUBO in July 2016 and currently serves as Senior Director of Government Affairs. Prior to joining NACUBO she worked in the Federal Relations office of the University of Arizona where she served as a liaison between the university and the federal government. Megan previously served as a law clerk on Capitol Hill to Senator John McCain and for the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigation.

Megan holds degrees from the University of Arizona and American University's Washington College of Law.